

Mercer County Conservation District presents

“Get Outside, Come Alive” Series

A monthly series highlighting conservation and recreation within Mercer County and PA

This is a monthly series by the Mercer County Conservation District that highlights a new topic each program. The program will typically take place at the Munnell Run Farm “Pig Barn” in Mercer, PA. Check the programs for time and location details. You must pre-register for the programs the Friday before. Call 724-662-2242. The fee for the program is $5/ adult; 17 & under are free but must be accompanied by an adult. Visit munnellrunfarm.org for more info.

“Wildflower Waltz” Tuesday, May 23rd 6 PM- 8 PM; MRF Pig Barn; Speakers: MCCD Enviro Educators

\ Come join us in an interactive learning program on how to identify flowers using different id guides and learning tools and tips of the trade.*

“Honey Bees 101” Thursday, May 25th; 6 PM- 7:30 PM; MRF Pig Barn; Speakers: Corinna Sweeny

\ Come join us as we showcase the unique life history of the honey bee and their significant important to many of the foods we eat. You will learn the intricate family dynamics of the hive and the reasons for swarms.*

